

Cromwell Cup Match

30 October, 2016

Beginning at 8:00 a.m.

The 2016 Cromwell Cup Match, named in honor of Guy William Cromwell will be held at the Oklahoma City Gun Club this year in partnership with the Central Kansas Gun Club.

There will be two matches: An NRA certified, 500-point match, followed by a CMP John C. Garand Match.

All proceeds, minus NRA fees ($4.50 per participant) will be donated to a charitable organization chosen by representatives of the Central Kansas Gun Club that promotes youth firearms safety and marksmanship and / or youth shooting sports. Random Drawings for non-monetary prizes will be held during the course of the matches. John C. Garand achievement pins will be awarded to participants firing the John C. Garand Match in accordance with CMP regulations.

Schedule of events:

500-point NRA National Match Course with sighters.

Entry Fee: $20.00

After the 500-point NRA match has concluded:

John C. Garand Match: 30-shot As-Issued Military Rifle Match Course A for As-Issued or Unlimited M1 Garands. The match is governed by the latest CMP Competition Rules. Rifles will be in accordance with aforementioned regulations.
