Registration period: 0830 - 1000hrs, morning of

Firing Starts: 0900hrs

Rules: Match is governed by CMP Games Rifle and Competition Rules book, 2023 10th Ed., and the CMP Guide to Rimfire Sporter Shooting.

Rulebooks are available at

<https://thecmp.org/competitions/matches/rimfire-sporter-2/>

Competitors are encouraged to review the rule book with respect to restrictions on firearms (ie weight, trigger pull, scope power), other equipment (slings, kneeling rolls, mats, gloves, boots, jackets), and individual coaching. The Rimfire Sporter match is for competitors who fire .22 caliber rifles that comply with Rimfire Sporter Rules. Rimfire rifles may have a scope (T-Class) (max. 6x, variables are taped at 6X) or open sights (O-Class), and Tactical Unlimited (TU Class) Rimfire Rifles. Don't fret, there is a firearms category for competitors who wish to use their favorite .22 rifle that doesn't fall within the CMP Sporter Rifle restrictions. This special Class, OIC, will not earn awards.

Ammunition will NOT be issued by club officials; competitors must bring their own ammo.

Course of Fire:

The course of fire for the Rimfire Sporter Match is given below. All firing is at 50 and 25 yards on the CMP Rimfire Sporter Targets.
