

"Chicks Breakin' Clays!"

Ladies, have you ever wanted to learn how to shoot a shotgun but felt intimidated by shooting with a group of men? Have you wanted to just practice your skeet shooting skills in a comfortable environment with a fun group of female friends? Well, here's your chance! "Chicks Breakin' Clays!" is offered on Wednesdays at the Shotgun Range, with 4 different sessions available - morning times are 9 - 10:30 or 10:30 - noon; afternoon/evenings are 4:30 - 6 or 6 - 7:30. You must pre-register with Paula Tate since spots are limited. Her contact info is below.

The 10-week season starts on March 30th and concludes on June 15th with a Chickabration. The cost for both members and non-members is $50 plus the cost of rounds ($3.75 per 25 targets if bought in bulk, or $4 per 25 if purchasing tokens from the machine with a $20 bill) - you bring your own ammo and gun (if you have one). We usually have time to shoot 2 boxes of ammo each week (7½ to 9 shot - lead only - NO steel) but suggest you bring more in case time permits. Eye and ear protection are required, plus wearing a visor or ball cap is recommended.

Chicks who are new to shooting or don't have much experience with a shotgun or just need a refresher - must attend the FIRST Steps Shotgun class. FIRST stands for Firearms Instruction Responsibility and Safety Training. The 3½ hour long class costs $20 which includes materials and one round of 25 targets. Choose one of the following dates: March 5th from 9 am until 12:30 pm; March 6th from 1 - 4:30 pm; March 26th from 9 am - 12:30 pm; or March 27th from 1 - 4:30 pm. Pre-registration is required as spots are limited and materials have to be ordered. Contact Paula Tate to register. ***
